

For our prayers

Church

We give thanks for the gospel entrusted to us, and pray that the Church may live and proclaim it faithfully. We pray for the grace in our own lives to be alert and attentive to what God would have us do and be for him, and we pray especially for all those seeking to discern God's call at this time.

World

We pray for all those who work for peace and reconciliation throughout the world, and for all who bear witness to truth in places of oppression and violence. We pray for all those who are trapped in poverty; for those with no access to medicine, education or employment; and for all whose human dignity is denied, praying for justice and fairness for all.

Our Neighbours

We give thanks and pray for all who volunteer in Cambridge, and for the people and causes they support. Within the parish we pray for those who work at the Academy of Ancient Music, S J Kilshaw and Fudge Kitchen. And at St Bene't's we give thanks and pray for all those who serve on the PCC.

Those in Need

We pray that all those in any kind of need, sickness or distress may know Christ's healing and his peace. And we pray especially for Richard McLaren, Jennifer Fields, Ethel Drake, Madeleine Russell, Jonah Andrews, Lilah Wayment, Jaqui Williams Durkin, Mhairi Burden, Peggy Pike, and Margaret Starksfield. We pray for those who mourn, that they may be comforted, and for all who are struggling to keep it together in order to support others.

The Departed

We give thanks for the promise and hope of resurrection, and we pray for those who have died, that they may come to share fully in the life and love of God. We pray for Shirley Hillier and all the recently departed; for our own departed relatives and friends; and for those whose year's mind falls this week, including Ian Thompson.
