

For our prayers

Church

We give thanks for the ways God feeds us through the Church, and especially in scripture and sacrament. We pray that we may live out what we receive, that we may be signs of God's love and grace in the world. We pray for Stephen, our bishop, and for all those charged with teaching and guarding the faith, and with leading the Church, that they may themselves be led in wisdom and humility.

World

We pray for a healing of the divisions that breed fear, hostility, suspicion and prejudice. And we pray for the righting of injustices that deny human rights and dignity, and which damage creation. We pray for all those who seek refuge and find none; for those separated from their families; for all who bear the scars of war and trauma. And we pray for courage, compassion and wisdom among those with authority, that they may both know and do what is right and good.

Our Neighbours

We pray for all who live and work in the parish, and this week especially for those who work at the Centre for Process Excellence and Innovation, the Cambridge Centre for Risk Studies and Hotel du Vin. At St Bene't's we give thanks for all those who prepare and arrange flowers, and for all those who support the ministry of the church through their giving and their gifts.

Those in Need

We pray for healing and peace for all those facing illness, trauma or distress, that they may know themselves held and sustained in the love of Christ. We pray especially for Rosie, Duncan and Robin Hewitt, John Heywood, Gemma Cherry, Jack, Charles Scott, Steven Canning, Ethel Drake, Mhairi Burden, Peggy Pike and Elaine Hale.

The Departed

We pray that those who have died may come to share in the joys of eternal life. We pray for those who have died recently, including Dimitris Kourtzis, for our own departed loved ones, and for those whose year's mind falls this week, among them for Ethel Fevez.

Alternative arrangements are in place for access to services (via Free School Lane Monday-Saturday, and by the Corpus side gate on Sundays). The church will be closed outside of service times.
